

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Read H. S. Tregloan & Son's advertisement in this issue.

The November of the Paradise of the Pacific is out.

Appointments to Tax Appeal Boards have been made.

E. O. Hall & Sons will have an annual meeting at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

A. S. Humphreys, attorney at law, has an office in the old capitol building, next the postoffice.

Miss Gould, sister of Mrs. H. P. Walton, left on the Warrimoo last night for her home in Seattle.

A business meeting of the committee on constitution and by-laws of the Tennis Association met for business last night.

Male descendants of veterans of the civil war in America are asked to meet at American League Hall, 7:30 p. m. Thursday.

Viscount Suidale, the Hon. W. L. Allardice and the Hon. George Smith were passengers for the Coast by the Warrimoo.

George P. Castle advertises his elegant residence on Kinohi for sale. The Hawaiian Safe Deposit Co. will answer all inquiries.

Registrar Ashley was in his office yesterday for the first time since his illness. He is still very weak and shows plainly the effects of his severe sufferings.

The Women's Board of Missions will hold their monthly meeting at 2:30 p. m. today at the Central Union Church. Theme: "Incidents in the Lives of Some Missionary Ladies in Hawaii," by Mrs. Robert Andrews.

There will be a meeting of the Flower Mission in Y. M. C. A. Hall this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The mission is talking of giving a fair in the near future to raise funds to replenish the treasury. Arrangements are already on foot.

Lo Fat, the Chinese acrobat and comedian, who has attracted the attention of so many people at the new Chinese Theater on account of his marvelous feats, has made a contract with the management of the play house to stay one year.

In the Circuit Court yesterday afternoon the jury sitting on the case of George Houghtaling, for selling spirituous liquor without a license, rendered a verdict of not guilty at 6:45 o'clock, after having been in session since 1:30 p. m. There were two dissenting votes.

Next Sunday will be the last upon which the congregation of Kawaiahae will have to sit in the shed, for a week from that time the old church will be ready for occupancy. Many people of the city are not aware of the beauty of finish which the interior of the church now possesses.

There will be a meeting of the Honolulu Choral Society in the room above the gymnasium, Y. M. C. A. Hall, at 7:30 o'clock this evening, for the purpose of reorganization. Every member of the society is requested to be present. The music loving people of Honolulu have always looked forward to the doings of the society with great interest, and it is hoped the members will continue the good work.

In the police court yesterday afternoon Wally Davis was fined $250 for unlawful possession of opium. It will be remembered that Davis was with the party that took provisions out to the Olympia when she was outside the harbor, and whose boat was found to contain opium. In the cases of the others of Davis' party, nolle prosequi were entered and defendants discharged.

Death of a Tourist.

Among the tourists who spent last winter and spring in these islands, were Mr. and Mrs. Willard S. Pope, of Detroit, Mich. Mr. Pope was a mechanical engineer, who had built some of the largest bridges on the leading railroads in the Western States. The last mail brought advices of his death in the above city, on October 11, at the age of 63. At the time of his death he was president of the Detroit Bridge & Iron Works. It was on account of impaired health that he spent several months here, hoping to receive some benefit from the change. While in this city he made the Hawaiian Hotel his headquarters, and became acquainted with some of the leading citizens, and took great interest in the political changes that have taken place here.

FUNERAL OF DR. BRODIE.

Tributes From Many of His Friends.

Services by Bishop Willis—Free From Ostentation—Handsome Floral Offerings.

The Waikiki residence of the late Dr. John Brodie was truly a house of mourning yesterday. In the rooms and the outside lanai were persons who had called to pay their last respects to one who had been their friend in times of suffering and who had been suddenly taken from them. There were few eyes which did not plainly show the traces of the sorrow the hearts felt. The ladies who had volunteered their services to look after certain details of the funeral were so numerous that they jostled each other in their efforts to have everything to their satisfaction. Dr. Murray, the friend and associate of the deceased, was so crushed in spirits that every one, stranger and friend, extended their sympathy to him. During the funeral services he sat at the side of the casket as chief mourner, and when Bishop Willis read the solemn service of the dead, beginning with "I am the resurrection and the life," the young man sat staring into space, his eyes bearing evidence of the burden his heart carried. Dr. Brodie had been his friend and, in a measure, benefactor, and a mental record of his kindly actions toward the young physician was brought vividly before him. By his side was Miss Newman, and opposite were Mr. and Mrs. Witcher, who have been guests at the doctor's house for some time. In another room sat Mrs. Riley and Miss Jones and Fugii, a little Japanese girl, of whom the doctor was very fond.

The remains were encased in a handsome dove-colored casket. Resting on the floor at either side were pots of maidenhair ferns and at the foot was a bunch of the beautiful blossoms of the royal palm. Around an easel in one corner of the room the deft hands of loving friends had entwined sun flowers. The tall mirror facing the door of the parlor had been covered with black velvet and over this fragrant tube roses were festooned from top to bottom. On the lid of the casket there were two exquisitely beautiful floral pieces; one, at the head was a large pillow made of pink carnations, the other a broken cross made of white eucharist lilies. Separating these was the massive plate containing the name, age and date of death of the doctor. Dr. Brodie's friends are legion so that there were a host of volunteers from among the ladies of Honolulu. From early Monday morning until the hour of the funeral Mrs. J. H. Boyd, who had charge of the floral decorations, Mrs. G. Beckley, Mrs. J. W. Robertson, Mrs. Lillie Auld and the Misses Blanche Cornwall, Helen Parker and Lucy Ward were busy shaping huge bunches of cut flowers into designs suited to the occasion.

Each of the rooms on the lower floor contained more or less potted palms and ferns, so placed, however, as to conceal any attempt to display. It was the opinion of the ladies in charge that the decorations should be marked with simplicity rather than ostentation, because they believed it would have been the doctor's wish, could he have given instructions concerning his funeral.

The pall-bearers, who were selected from among the doctor's nearest friends and the medical profession, were: F. M. Swanzy, F. A. Schaefer, Frank B. McStocker, George W. Smith, James H. Boyd, Abraham Fernandez, Drs. Herbert and Myers.

A very large number of carriages followed the hearse to Nuuanu Cemetery, where the remains were interred.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT.

Plover Shooting Yesterday Costs a Hand—A Swede the Victim.

The train from Waianae pulled into the depot at about 9 o'clock last night with a wounded Swede by the name of Carl Jensen. The details of the accident which cost the man his right hand are as follows: Jensen was out plover hunting. He had been doing some shooting and was about to reload his gun when he saw a very large flock of birds, almost upon him. This led him to hurry reloading operations. In the excitement of the moment he put his right hand over the muzzle of the gun and, as luck would have it, the gun was discharged at the same instant. Jensen was brought up on the train and taken to the hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate the hand at the wrist. Dr. Wood performed the operation. At latest accounts the man was resting comfortably.

The Mergenthaler Linotype.

A column of editorial matter in this issue was set up last night on a Mergenthaler Linotype by Fred Potter, a young man sent by the Hawaiian Gazette Company to the Mergenthaler factory for the purpose of learning the modus operandi of the machines. The linotypes were received here a couple of weeks ago and Mr. Potter, assisted by A. F. Kopke of the Honolulu Iron Works, placed them in position. It is believed that in a few days the machines will be running smoothly and the news columns of the ADVERTISER will be set in type entirely by the machine. The crowded condition of the composing rooms will not permit of an invitation being extended the public to inspect the machinery, but when the company occupies its new quarters in the Von Holt block on King street certain days will be set apart on which the public may visit the rooms.

The Kalakaua Monument.

A meeting of the directors of the Kalakaua Monument Association was held in the office of Mark Robinson yesterday afternoon. The bronze bust of Kalakaua, contract for which was given Allan Hutchinson, the sculptor, in July, 1894, was reported finished. It was accepted as handed to the association by Mr. Hutchinson. Arrangements will probably be made to have the bust on show at the exhibition of the Kiloana Art League, to take place in the near future. Arrangements are now pending to have it placed permanently in the Executive building. Subscriptions have amounted to $2000.

A MIRACLE IN TEXAS

Investigated by the Texas Christian Advocate and Vouched for by Dr. C. H. Stansbury.

(From the Texas Christian Advocate.)

Our representative has made a careful investigation of the case of E. E. Spaulding, a Longview, which is here published for the first time, and which will be read with great interest by medical men everywhere. In reply to the Christian Advocate's questions Mr. Spaulding said: About eight years ago while running a locomotive I contracted sciatic rheumatism in my left side from my hip down. It came on slow but sure and in a few months I lost control entirely of that member, it was just the same as if it was paralyzed, I was totally unable to move out of my room for a year and a half, six months of which time I was bed-ridden. I tried every remedy suggested, and had numerous physicians in constant attendance on me. I was banded up and sent to Hot Springs where I spent three months under the treatment of the most eminent specialists, all of which did me no good, and I came back from the springs in a worse condition than when I went. I came home and laid flat on my back and suffered the most excruciating agonies, screaming in pain every time anybody walked across the room. I could not obtain being from the constant use of opiates. After three months of this kind of agony, during which time my entire left leg wasted away, my teeth very loose, my attention was called to a new remedy called Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, by Mr. Allison who is now train dispatcher at Tarrant, and who was relieved of locomotive ataxia of twenty years duration. At his urgent and repeated solicitation I consented to give them a trial, after taking a few doses I began to improve. I continued taking the pills and kept right on improving until I was finally cured. My leg is just the same size now as the other one, and I am sure that Pink Pills not only cured me but saved my life.

The reporter next visited Dr. C. H. Stansbury, a graduate of one of the medical schools of Kentucky, and a man who enjoys the confidence of everybody in Longview. He said: "I know that Mr. Spaulding had a terrible severe attack of sciatic rheumatism of which I tried to cure him, and everything known to my profession in vain, and finally recommended him to go to Hot Springs. He came back from the springs worse than when he went and I thought it was only a matter of time until his heart would be affected and he would die. I also know that his cure is the direct result of the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

"This is an unusual statement for a regular physician to make, doctor, and I know it is a fact and a fact is a fact and there are hundreds of people right here in Longview who know what I say is the truth. I also know Mr. Allison and know that he was relieved of sciatic rheumatism and locomotive ataxia of twenty years standing."

An impoverished condition of the blood, or a disordered condition of the nerves, is the fruitful source of most of the ailments of mankind, and is any thus affected Dr. Williams' Pink Pills offer a speedy and certain cure. No other remedy has ever met with such great and continued success, which is one of the strongest proofs that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills accomplish all that is claimed for them. They are an unfailing cure for locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatic rheumatism, rheumatism, nervous headache, palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, diseases depending upon vitiated blood, such as scurvy, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, curing all forms of weakness. As men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of any nature.

These pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Dr. C. H. Stansbury, London, Eng. They are put up in round glass bottles, each wrapper covering which bears the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." As there are imitations of this mark on every package you purchase, and promptly refuse all imitations and substitutions.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by The Hawaiian Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents, and all dealers in medicine.

Paul Isenberg and wife have returned from Kauai, after a long vacation.

The Loyal Legion.

There was a meeting of the Loyal Legion, a branch of the W. C. T. U. yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Birnie, wife of the pastor of the Central Union Church delivered an interesting address to the thirty-five members present. Temperance primers was distributed among those present and work in this line will be pushed in a practical way. Miss Judd is president of the Legion and Miss Whitney the secretary. The object of the Legion is to instill into the minds of the young the necessity for advancing the temperance cause in Hawaii.

This is Guy Fawkes day; it is likewise the forty-seventh birthday of genial Joseph Marsden, Commissioner of Agriculture of the Republic of Hawaii.

Valuable Property FOR SALE.

On account of removal to Waikiki, the residence of G. P. Castle, Esq., is now offered for sale.

This lot is 225 by 400 feet, occupying one-half of the entire block, bounded by Kinau, Kapiolani, Lunalilo and Victoria streets in Honolulu. All the buildings are in first-class condition. The main building contains Parlor, Dining Room, five airy Bedrooms with Dressing Rooms and Cedar Closets, Bath Room, Kitchen and Pantry; a wide veranda on three sides of the house, and is arranged with large doors and French windows, giving complete ventilation; has also a Porte Cochere over the drive-way.

The drainage is good, having a fall of 40 feet, while the plumbing is the best, with hot and cold water, stationary wash bowls and patent water closets.

There is a cottage with two rooms on the place, also a wood-shed, chicken-house and a commodious barn with servants quarters.

The yard is the result of thirteen years care and expense, has a fine growth of full grown trees and plants, which are very necessary for genuine comfort in a warm climate.

The Title to this property is perfect, and a Warranty Deed will be given the purchaser. It is seldom that a property like this is put upon the market for sale, and parties living on the other islands who are desirous of securing a home in the healthiest part of Honolulu would do well to take a look at this estate.

Parties desiring to inspect these premises with a view of purchasing will be driven out there at any time, by calling upon the undersigned.
